Introductory Class

June 3,2020

Class Outline

- Student teachers introductions

- Introduction activity

- Expectations

- BigBlueButton Orientation

- Two truth and a lie activity

- Closing activity

Objectives

- Students and teachers getting to know each other through activities.

- Students understand and accept class expectations and share their own expectations.

- Students get familiar with the usage of BigBlueButton.

- Students share their personal strengths and learning goals.

Introductory Activity

Let everyone know about you!

- What's your name?

- Where are you from?

- Tell us something special about your hometown!

- If you were a celebrity, what would you be famous for?

- Any questions for Sylvie and Sally?

Expectations

- Turn your cameras on when interacting with your peers and student teachers

- Actively participate in discussions and activities.

- Any expectations for Sylvie and Sally?
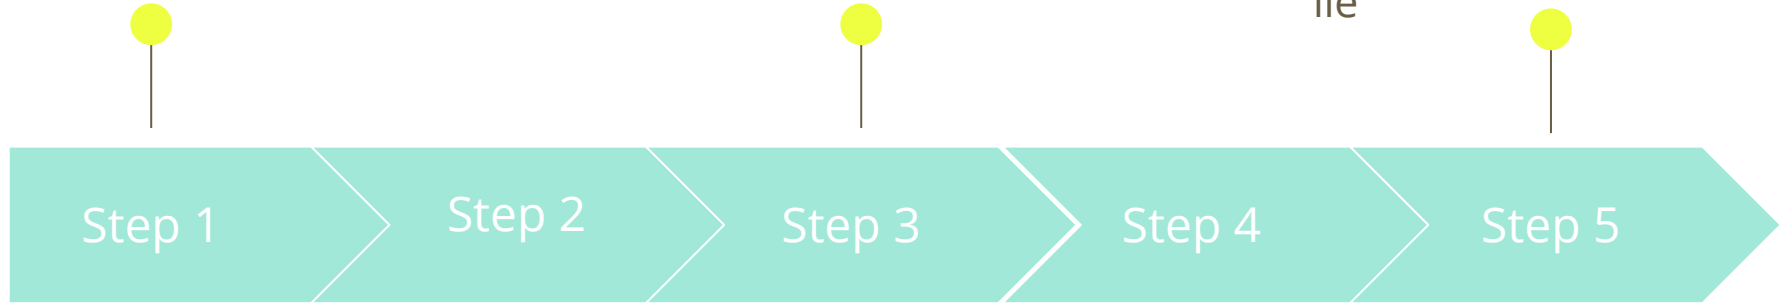

Orientation

- Functions of BigBlueButton

- Interactive whiteboard

- Setting your status

- Polls

- Shared notes

Two Truth And A Lie!

Think of three statements about yourself, two true and one false

Present three statements about yourself, two true and one false

Use a poll to guess the lie

| Step 1 | Step 2 | Step 3 | Step 4 | Step 5 |

Type your three statements in the shared notes

Other students and the teachers will ask a question about each

Closing Activity

- What are you strengths in communicating in English? (i.e. vocabulary, listening, pronunciation, confidence, etc.)

- What do you hope to improve this semester?